

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

I. General information:

- "Theologica Wratislaviensia" is a national periodical published in Poland in the field of theology and biblical studies. The yearbook scored 20 points in the MeiN list of scientific journals and peer reviewed materials from international conferences.
- The editorial board accepts only previously unpublished texts.
- All texts are peer reviewed by specialists (double blind review). After receiving a positive review the editorial board makes the final decision whether to accept the text for publication.
- The editorial board accepts texts in Polish, English and German.
- The editorial board reserves the right to change the title, shorten it and make changes to the texts.
- The editorial board does not pay royalties.
- The authors receive 1 copy of the journal free of charge.
- The editorial board does not return unsolicited materials.
- The editorial board asks you to send materials by e-mail to the following address: redakcja@ewst.pl

II. Guidelines for preparing articles for printing:

- Authors are asked to provide the following personal data: title and academic degree, unique persistent identifier of scientific publications ORCID (Open Researcher and Contributor ID), place of work with the exact address, correspondence address, telephone number and e-mail address.
- Texts should not exceed 60,000 characters with spaces.
- The text should be written in 12 point font, 1.5 line spacing, about 30 lines per page.
- Each text should be accompanied by an abstract in a language other than the language of the article. The abstract should be written in 10 point font, 1.5 line spacing, up to 10 lines. For articles in Polish, the preferred language of the abstract is English. Keywords in Polish and English should also be included.

- Foreign-language texts should be accompanied by a summary in Polish and keywords in Polish and English. These elements should be attached to the article in the same Word.doc / docx document.
- Keep text formatting to a minimum.
- Illustrations should be described and numbered, and their location indicated in the margin of the printout. The text should be accompanied by a list of pictures with captions.
- Authors of articles and reviews are asked to complete, sign and return a scan of the ghostwriting declaration form to redakcja@ewst.pl. When a text has more than one author, please indicate the percentage of each author's contribution to its creation.

III. Footnotes - bibliographic description should be made according to the following rules:

- Bibliographic references should be made in the Chicago style (author-date system):
- Sources should be placed in the text in round brackets (reference to the cited publication). Numbered footnotes are to be used for the author's commentary, explanation of concepts, suggestions of relevant literature, etc.
